Do you agree to uphold the philosophy of the United Methodist Church regarding the spiritual development of young children as stated below? _____

Philosophy of Spiritual Development of Young Children

In the United Methodist Church we share the Christian faith in the hope that people will claim this faith and live as disciples of Jesus Christ. We live God's love in relationship with God, in relationship with self and others, and in relationship with creation.

Young children (birth – age 5) are forming the foundations for faith development. Children need:

Birth – age 2

- to have attractive, safe space that encourages personal development and awareness of others
- to have loving, caring adults who help them experience trust
- to be guided in respecting other's rights and being friends
- to have love expressed through gentleness blended with sufficient firmness

Ages 3 – 5

- to be with adults with Christian attitudes and behaviors that children can imitate
- to have their feelings and actions accepted and to be forgiven when they do not meet adult expectations
- to develop and express their own identity as individuals and in relation to others
- to be guided in playing cooperatively with other children without fighting
- to practice decision making through optional activities

The Nett Church Kindergarten And Preschool Mission Statement

The Nett Church Kindergarten and Preschool's mission is to partner with the family to introduce God's plan for their child and inspire a love for learning. We seek to teach Jesus' love for the children, encouraging His values and character in their lives.

We believe that each child is a child of God and has a right to develop to his or her fullest potential. We strive to create a program that will provide examples of the highest qualities of the Christian faith, assist parents in these crucial years of child rearing, and provide children the very best of early childhood education in order to meet all needs of the developing child – physical, intellectual, emotional, social and spiritual.

We commit ourselves to providing a program which brings together the best we know about the education of young children and our highest understanding of the Christian faith.
